Intensive-In-Home Counseling Services

IH

Intensive-in-Home counseling services are for children and adolescents who are at risk of removal from their homes due to severe mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders. These services involve intense interventions designed to reduce at-risk behaviors to help the child remain stabilized in the home and community.

L.E.V.O.C. FAMILY SERVICES (LFS)

L.E.V.O.C. Family Services provides community-based services in the Commonwealth of Virginia. These services are comprehensive in nature and practical in their approach.

Each client receives a comprehensive assessment and strengths-based, individualized, service plan that addresses his or her needs.

Vested in the communities it serves, L.E.V.O.C. works collaboratively with other community agencies and links clients to available community resources.

Operating in compliance with federal and state regulations governing mental health services, L.E.V.O.C. maintains the confidentiality and protects the rights & privacy of the clients we serve. L.E.V.O.C. is a member of several local Human Rights Committees.

Caring and competent mental health professionals work diligently to help clients achieve established goals and improve their quality of life.

What are Intensive-in-Home Services?

Intensive-in-Home Services are intensive, time-limited, interventions provided to children and adolescents who are at risk of being moved into an out-of-home placement, or who are being transitioned to home from out-of-home placement due to documented clinical needs of the child. An out-of-home placement location may include psychiatric hospital, juvenile detention center or a residential facility

Intensive-in-Home services include:

- Crisis treatment
- Individual and family counseling
- Communication skills training
- Training in problem-solving, anger management, and interpersonal interactions
- Care coordination with other required services
- 24-hour emergency response.
